ARMA Year 2021-2022

Keeping Our Eye on the Targets

Preservation, Protection, Compliance, Usability, Training, and Access

BITS AND BYTES FROM THE BOARD

We've just passed the waning days of a long, hot summer. September marks the beginning of a new Metro Maryland Chapter Year. While carrying on through the pandemic has been a challenge, we have survived, and become even stronger as a chapter. Our investment in video conferencing technology last September enabled us to present a series of excellent webinars from October through August, in addition to holding several virtual social gatherings. We will continue offering webinars and virtual events into the new chapter year. While we miss the fun and camaraderie of our face-to-face meetings, our online programs have made it possible to attract a wider variety of speakers, bring in attendees from beyond our local area, and deliver valuable educational content, while keeping everyone safe during the pandemic.

Over the summer, your executive board has been working to plan programs and activities for the upcoming chapter year. Speaking of the executive board, here is the 2021-2022 lineup:

President: Carol Agayoff, CRM

Vice President: Betsy Christie, CRM/FED

Secretary: Debbie Armentrout, CRM/FED
Treasurer: Cheryl Smith, CRM/FED
Directors:
 Elizabeth Canter, CRM
 Henry Breton
 Courtney Anderson
ICRM Liaison: Tod Chernikoff, CRM, IGP, CIP

Upcoming programs include:

October 13, 2021 - Alina Selmo, Director of the Office of Government Information Services, NARA
November 10, 2021 - Jerry Lucente-Kirkpatrick, CRM, IGP, Regent, Marketing and Communications, Institute of Certified Records Managers
